5. GO Ms.No. 1293,Rev(CTI)Department dt. 10.11.2008
6. Commissioner of Commercial Taxes Ref No DX4/543/2008 dt. 27.12.2008 and 12.3.2009

ORDER:

The Commissioner of Commercial Taxes in her letter 6th read above has stated that on the proposal from the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, Government have issued orders vide reference 5th read above, reducing the period of training for Direct Recruit Assistant Commercial Tax Officers from one year to six months amending sub-rule (a) of Rule 8 of the Andhra Pradesh Commercial Taxes Subordinate Service Rules, 1990. While issuing the said orders, the Government has also included rank promotees in the purview of the amendment to the above rule although there was no specific proposal from their office in respect of Rank promotees. At present the Assistant Commercial Tax Officers appointed by transfer are required to undergo mandatory training only for 3 months.

2. The Commissioner of Commercial Taxes has further stated that the Senior Assistant rank promotees have to put in a minimum of 10 years of service before becoming eligible for promotion as Assistant Commercial Tax Officer. During this period they acquaint themselves with various statutes and all the branches of work of the Department and as such a three months training period for them is adequate. She has therefore requested to delete the words “By transfer ” in the amendment made to sub rule (a) of Rule 8 of the Andhra Pradesh Commercial Taxes Subordinate Service Rules, 1990 in the reference 5th read above.

3. Government have examined the matter and decided to prescribe a three months training period for Assistant Commercial Tax Officers appointed by transfer from the cadre of Senior Assistants in the Andhra Pradesh Ministerial Service and Assistant Section Officers and Stenographers in the Andhra Pradesh Secretariat Service while retaining a six months training schedule for those directly recruited.

4. Accordingly, the following notification shall be published in the Extraordinary Issue of the Andhra Pradesh Gazette, dated 04.09. 2009
